

Consulting Services to Help Your Organization

Denis St-Amour

No one Organization or Person comes to the plate perfectly fit & equipped; we can identify and build on strengths & lesser strengths, uncover and develop areas of Business & People opportunity.

Our work has seen clients up their performance by a minimum of 5-10% and more, enhancing leadership and team collaboration.

Our goal is to partner with your organization and develop strategies that are tailor made to fit the Business challenges, culture, goals, and performance objectives of your organization.

Denis is not only a Business consultant but has successfully led teams and organizations representing all levels of services offered. He has led the largest North American coaching, transition and change management organization at the C-Suite level, as well as a Board Representative on a Global re-organization & streamlining project initiative.

His 30-year history spans the globe and includes working with Small, (PME-Entrepreneurial) Medium & Large size organizations, (Spanning a broad range & size of Industry, Manufactures & Service sectors, majority in N/A) in both the for profit and charitable, NFP sector as well.
